

COMMUNITY CHEST GOAL WITHIN REACH; BENEFIT SHOWS TO HELP APPEAL

Over $26,000.00 Already Pledged or Collected in Arlington's Annual Appeal—Last Report Meeting Held Wednesday Evening—Shows At Local Theatres To Help Increase Funds

Arlington's Community Chest Appeal for 1938 officially closed Wednesday evening with a total of $26,135.27 reported. The original goal was for $32,000.00 and with final figures still incomplete, those in charge of the appeal are confident that the drive will go "over the top."

The temporary headquarters in Arlington Centre during the appeal will be closed this week-end and Miss Bernice Holmes, executive secretary will again be at the permanent office at 655 Massachusetts avenue, in the Menomony Trust building, beginning next Monday. Late reports may be made at this office after this week.

In order to help put the appeal over the Capital and Regent Theatres have offered to give two benefit performances. The Capital Theatre will give the entire proceeds from a show to be presented Saturday morning, February 12 at 10:30 o'clock. The feature picture will be "College" with Joe Penner, Jack Oakie and Betty Grable. Four comic cartoons will also be presented. Admission will be fifteen cents only for adults as well as children. Tickets for this performance will be available in schools this week. Extra tickets may be had by calling Arlington 2430. The Capitol Theatre has offered to pay all expenses of conducting this benefit performance so that every cent collected will go to the Community Chest.

The Regent Theatre will turn over to the Chest fifty percent of the proceeds from Valentine's Day shows in the afternoon and evening when two pictures will be shown. The first will be "The Bride Wore Red" with Joan Crawford and Franchot Tone. The other will be "Lancer Spy" with Dolores Del Rio and George Sanders.

Officers of the Arlington Community Chest urge everyone to patronize these two benefit shows.

New Plans Made For April 19th

Refusing to admit defeat because of the action of the recent special town meeting which voted down an appropriation of $2,500 for a joint celebration of the United States Constitution, the Arlington Patriots' Day on April 19, the large committee representing various military, civic and patriotic organizations which had mapped out a program for the celebration met with the board of selectmen Monday evening to consider further plans.

It was voted to seek an appropriation of $1,500 at the annual town meeting to cover the cost of a big parade and an oratorical contest. The new plans would eliminate the expense of a pageant and a ball as originally planned.

A sub-committee comprising George Greim, Rev. Richard T. Broeg, Thomas G. Jenness, A. William Platine and Lawrence Kieley was appointed to meet with the finance committee in the near future and explain present plans. Should the finance committee refuse to recommend the smaller appropriation, the celebration plans will be abandoned.

New Patrol Car- Ambulance Asked

An appropriation will be sought at the annual town meeting in March for the purchase of a new combination patrol car and ambulance. Drawings now in the hands of town officials call for a modern vehicle very similar to that recently purchased by the town of Weymouth.

The new vehicle is badly needed to replace the antiquated patrol wagon which is now used as an ambulance. In an accident cases, the present "ambulance" has no rear door and accident victims removed to the hospital in this vehicle are actually endangered by carbon monoxide fumes. It has been pointed out. The old patrol wagon and ambulance has been used in Arlington for years. It is housed at the police station garage and kept in operation by the department mechanic.

Selectmen Deny Permit For Two New Billboards

After hearing ten people, including Rev. Warren N. Bixby and Miss Lucinda M. Higgins, president of the Arlington Garden Club, speak in opposition to proposed billboards, the board of selectmen Monday evening denied the application of John Donnelly & Sons permits to erect and maintain billboards at 127 Massachusetts avenue and 82-86 Massachusetts avenue.

Such applications are first filed with the state and then sent to the local selectmen for approval. The applicant can appeal within ten days and show cause why permits for such billboards should be granted.

Mrs. Arthur W. Horton and her daughter Irene Edna are home again after having spent a week in New York.

INTERVIEW APPLICANTS TO DIRECT BOYS' CLUB

Applicants for the position of executive director of the new Arlington Boys' Club were interviewed by the sub-committee in charge of making the selection, last evening.

In most cases the applicants were young men who have promising records of actual experience in organizing and conducting Boys' Club work. Of those interviewed four will be selected for a final interview before a director is actually appointed.

That the best qualified director obtainable should be selected was stressed by Arthur Berger, executive director of the Boston Boys' Clubs in a talk to the officers and directors of the Arlington Club on Thursday evening of last week. Mr. Berger outlined the many problems of organizing a club. He also emphasized the importance of permanent quarters for a Boys' Club.

JOBLESS INSURANCE IS EXPLAINED TO C. OF C.

In a timely talk before the Arlington Chamber of Commerce at its weekly meeting in Wyman's Tavern Tuesday evening, Kenneth V. Minihan, supervisor of research in the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, explained the workings of this new employment insurance plan which went into effect the first of the year.

He said in part: "The State of Massachusetts is one of six states which has employee contributions to unemployment insurance funds. At present, Massachusetts' fund amounts to $43,500,000 and is the strongest of any state in the Union. From this fund, money can be given only to individuals eligible as unemployed. We are not passing it out freely, for after all it is an insurance fund."

"We set out the following requirements which must be met before anyone can draw from the fund: 1. The person must prove that he is out of a job. 2. He must have earned wages in 2 or 3 quarters during the past year. 3. He must be capable and available for employment at any time while drawing the unemployment insurance. 4. He must report periodically to the commission while out of work. 5. He must be unemployed three weeks before he can draw from the fund."

"Benefits can be stopped if the unemployed person fails to report regularly to the commission, or if he is out of a job because of a labor dispute and a strike is in progress, the speaker added. "To discourage anyone from leaving a job voluntarily the waiting period before insurance can be drawn is longer," Mr. Minihan said.

In explaining the reports which have to be made out by employers having eight or more employees and who are in on the plan, Mr. Minihan said the commission was trying to co-operate to make these reports as easy to file as possible. He admitted the system is not perfect as yet, but it is here to stay and will be improved. He

Next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Citizens Committee's general headquarters, 801 Mass. Ave., all names of candidates for office will be placed before the entire membership and endorsements of the committee will be voted upon. All members are urged to be present as this is one of the most important meetings of the year.

The Board of Directors has elected two new members to its board. They are Albert Hanson of Precinct 4 and John S. Ingelbrecht of Precinct 8.

Plans have been formulated for house rallies to tie in with the general rallies held throughout the town before the annual election.

HEIGHTS GROUP SEEKS BETTER BUS SERVICE DURING RUSH HOURS

Arlington Heights Improvement Association Calls
Attention of Boston Elevated Board of Trustees
To Present Service—Believe It Could be Improved During Rush Hours At Harvard Square

The Arlington Heights Improvement Association has sent communications to both the Board of Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway and the State Department of Public Utilities seeking better bus service from Harvard square, especially during the rush hours. The letter of Secretary L. Harry Howe of the Heights association follows:

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association held on the 18th inst., I was instructed to write to your Honorable Board in protest against the type of service that is afforded the residents of this district by the Boston Elevated.

The Arlington Heights Improvement Association is a group of 150 male adults, representing through their families more than 500 residents of this district. We wish most strongly to register our protest against the bus service from Harvard Square to and from the Arlington Heights district.

The following and numerous other complaints have been registered with this Association:

1. No bus is permitted to leave Harvard Square by the starters in the evening during the rush hours unless it is jammed to the doors.

2. Several persons have been bruised and one woman quite seriously hurt in the crush to get on the buses at Harvard Square. This is due to the fact that the starter will not permit a bus to leave for the Heights until it is jammed full.

3. On many occasions passengers have been held back from getting on the bus by the starter after the bus has been filled. In many instances these persons have already waited from one to twenty minutes for that bus and this means an additional wait together with the accompanying jostling in trying to get on the next bus.

4. Sometimes there are never more than two lights burning in the bus—one at the front and one at the rear. This may be sound economy but it seems an invitation or a primary cause of injury to passengers and consequent suits against the Elevated.

5. No schedule is maintained between Harvard Square and the Heights during the evening rush period. If the starter feels that he has a sufficient number on hand to overload the bus he calls in an extra which is usually parked near Continued on page five

Excitement Runs High When Two Alarms Are Sounded For Small Fire

Excitement hit a new high Tuesday evening when two separate alarms were sounded, bringing out fire apparatus from Arlington stations, from Cambridge, Somerville and Medford for a fire which caused slight damage to the Farm Products market stand at 90 Massachusetts avenue, East Arlington. At least seventy-five firemen from Arlington and surrounding cities were gathered at the Highland fire station for graduation exercises of the firemen's training class when the first alarm came in. Selectman Ernest W. Davis, whose reputation as a "spark" is well known, couldn't resist the call and answered the alarm. When the second alarm was sounded, however, those in the gathering saw firemen in action as the Highland Hose House crew responded. The second alarm was pulled by some over-excited person, it was found later. The fire was discovered shortly before 8 o'clock by Kenneth Carroll of 1 Belknap street who reported to the police that an oil stove was blazing in the market. When firemen arrived, the stove had exploded and the interior of the one story wooden structure was a mass of flames. The contents were destroyed. The building is owned by Nurditch Woolloogoon of 100 Massachusetts avenue and the market was operated by Louis Margard of Somerville.

Federal Theatre To Present "Aladdin"

As a special treat for the kiddies the Parent-Teacher Association has arranged with the Federal Theatre to give a marionette performance of "Aladdin" at the Brackett School Auditorium, Friday afternoon, February 11, at 3.45. The elaborate production is in three acts and eight scenes, adapted by Almon E. Fuller from the story of "Aladdin" and "The Wonderful Lamp" as it appears in the Arabian Nights Tales. Mrs. James B. Sherman, of 23 Ottawa rd., is chairman of the sponsorship committee.

Drama Friends Mark 15th Anniversary

The Friends of the Drama Clubhouse was filled with members and friends who thoroughly enjoyed the celebration of the 15th anniversary of the organization last Sunday afternoon. The program was arranged by Mrs. George B. Rugg, who are charter members and past presidents both of whom served during the first years of the Friends. The first meeting of the organization, held at the home of Mrs. Cyrus E. Dallin who guided the organization through its first three months, was re-enacted. Charter members who enacted the scene were Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Rugg, Mrs. Curtis Waterman, Mrs. George C. Tewksbury, Mrs. John K. Berry, Mrs. Edward N. Lacey, Mrs. H. H. Stinson, Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, Mrs. Calvin Cook, Mrs. Charles F. Winner, Mrs. Edward Shinn, Mrs. William G. Brooks, Mrs. D. T. Percy, Mrs. Paul White, Misses Lena and Alice Lenk and Mrs. Charles H. Hoxie.

A poem, depicting tragedy, comedy and music which was written by Dr. Barbara Ring for one of the first meetings was read by Mr. Ralph W. Loud. Both Mrs. Loud and Dr. Ring are charter members. Depicting tragedy, a scene from Shakespeare's "Macbeth" was presented by Carl W. Trempt and John K. Winner. The comedy, "The Rain" by Stephen Leacock was presented by Miss Gertrude Lemon and Prescott W. Baston while excerpts from Gilbert & Sullivan operettas presented by the Friends under the direction of Edward Center provided the musical part of the program.

Mrs. Carl Fowler, chairman of the reception committee was assisted by Miss Grace Parker, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Berry, Jr., G. Lufkin and James Snow. Mrs. George W. Bowby was chairman of the refreshment committee. A large birthday cake was cut during the refreshment period.

Philip H. Burt is president of the organization.

Son Of School Superintendent Painfully Injured In Accident

Joseph Keating, 15-year-old son of Superintendent of Schools Joseph S. Keating, was painfully injured when struck by an automobile at the outbound street-car stop on Massachusetts avenue, at Bartlett avenue, last Sunday evening. The accident happened as the young man alighted from a street car and was heading for the sidewalk when an auto, which according to the police was operated by Helen C. Dimond, of Bedford, struck him. Thrown several feet by the impact the youth was unconscious when picked up. He was rushed to the Symmes hospital where he was treated for severe bruises to his face and ankle. Fortunately, x-ray pictures have shown no fractures. The youth was removed to his home, 144 Gloucester street, on Tuesday. He is a sophomore in the senior high school.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH NEWS

Because of the unusual entertainment to follow the parish supper Friday, February 11, reservations are coming in fast to the committee composed of Mrs. Marion Peirce, Mrs. Ernest R. Llewellyn, Mrs. Frank M. Harwood and Mrs. Arthur Wyman. The reservation deadline is tomorrow for the 150 that can be accommodated. At 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall motion picture scenes in connection with the second Byrd Antarctic Expedition will be shown by Walter K. Queen of Needham, chief engineer on the staff of Rear Admiral Byrd.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert K. Peirce of Springfield, Lexington, were elected members of the First Universalist Society at the recent annual meeting. On January 26 they entertained the executive committee of the Patterson Fellowship which mapped out a program for the winter and spring months. The Fellowship meets next Wednesday at the home of Marjorie McCann, 51 Academy st.

Mrs. Mabel O. Todd of Minneapolis was a visitor Sunday. A former parishioner of Mr. Rice, Mrs. Todd is an enthusiastic leader in Universalist affairs. On Saturday she will sail from New York on the Normandie for a cruise around South America. David L. Peirce, 18 Davis avenue, of the Raymond-Whitcomb Co. will have complete charge of this gigantic vessel and her 1,200 cruise passengers.

A "Parish Register" is being prepared which will contain a lot of interesting and valuable information about the official family of the church, the organizations and their programs, and the parish list. Answering the questions Who? What? When? Where? It should be especially useful to workers in the church. Only 150 copies will be turned out and it is expected that they will be ready for distribution at the supper Feb. 11.

ANSWERS CRITICISM OF PLANS FOR CELEBRATION

In a letter to the NEWS, Rev. Richard T. Broeg, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church and member of the special committee appointed by the board of selectmen to make plans for a joint celebration of Patriots' Day and the U. S. Constitution Sesquicentennial on April 19 answers the letter of Charles M. Sawyer, president of the Taxpayers' Association praising town meeting members for voting down a $2,500 appropriation for the celebration. Rev. Mr. Broeg writes:

As a member of the committee which was responsible for the article in the town warrant asking for an appropriation of $2,500 for the program celebrating the Sesquicentennial of the Constitution, may I be permitted to make a reply to a letter of Mr. Charles Sawyer appearing in a recent issue of the NEWS, and also to the remarks of the chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. Anderson, "that it seemed foolish to the Finance Committee to spend so much money unnecessarily."

In the first place this committee was appointed by the board of selectmen and asked to prepare a suitable program in commemoration of this event. This was in accordance with the nation-wide program, the board of selectmen acting in response to the request of the Federal Government.

In the second place the committee took its assignment seriously and tried to work out a program that would be adequate, appropriate and educational as well as inspirational and dignified. There was no attempt to create in the words of Mr. Sawyer, "an elaborate and entirely unnecessary ultra celebration."

I, as a member of the committee, admit that if the instilling of a spirit of patriotism, and a greater knowledge of, and respect for, the constitution of the United States in the hearts and minds of our citizenry, both young and old, is a "foolish expenditure of money" then of course no money should be so used.

However, there are serious doubts in my mind that a sum of money so expended is as "foolish" and "entirely unnecessary" as Mr. Sawyer or Mr. Anderson would have us believe. All the more am I convinced of this when I recall the sad spectacle of the meeting of last fall. It certainly revealed a low state of civic pride or loyalty to the Constitution. Shades of our noble forefathers!

In the third place it will afford a splendid demonstration to the State and Nation that while multitudes of other cities and communities are appropriately using this historic event to deepen a knowledge of, and respect for, the Constitution of the United States, Arlington, one of the historic towns of the nation considers it a "foolish" and "entirely unnecessary" expenditure of money. How foolish our neighboring town of Brookline to appropriate and spend over $1,000 for a parade and

LOOKING INSIDE

Feb. 2, 1938. Continuing the discussion of last week relative to borrowing for outlay matters—new streets, water and sewer extensions, one or two people have brought up this point, new streets etc. are not a regular expense and therefore are a proper item on which to borrow. That is correct, they are not an item of regular maintenance yet every year "regularly" they appear in the Town Warrant for appropriation. If a thing which comes up every year is not a "regular" expense what is it? We have some 59 miles of accepted streets and 44 miles of private streets with more yet to come as land is developed. Can you see how far enough to a point where we have completed all of these streets? We cannot build 44 miles of streets in one year or in ten years. No sir, we will have a street program and problem before the Town for a long, long time to come. The matter is an annual and continuous expense.

P.S. I read the other day that the Elevated has gone into the red some $133,000 more than last year. All the Cities and Towns using the "E" have to make up that deficit. Last year Arlington's share of that was $10,568 which will mean that the amount will be several thousands larger unless conditions change with the "E" this year, and it may amount to more than 75 cents on your tax rate. Use the "E" and save taxes.

P.S.S. It cost the people of Arlington $5,923, every day—Sundays and Holidays included to run the Town during the year 1936 whereas in 1935 it cost only $4,092 a day. This represents only the amount raised by taxes after various items of free cash, income tax etc. have been deducted, $1,831 a day more than it did ten years ago. Ask your Department heads, ask the State, County and Metropolitan District heads if the depression is over?

Takes Exception To Remarks Regarding Celebration Plans

Following is a copy of a letter sent to Charles M. Sawyer by Clarence F. Peirce, former chairman of the local Constitution Sesquicentennial Committee.
11 Appleton St.,
Arlington, Mass.,
January 31, 1938
Mr. Charles M. Sawyer, Pres.,
Arlington Taxpayers' Assoc.,
Arlington, Mass.

Dear Sir:—
I would like to take exception to several remarks made by you in your letter published in the Arlington Daily News Jan. 28th in connection with the $2,500 appropriation requested by the Arlington Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission.

In the first place, this is not an "ultra celebration of Patriots' Day" but a combination Patriots' Day and 150th Constitution Anniversary celebration. Every surrounding town and city has either held or expects to hold in the near future some celebration of this event.

Your mention of the few hundreds usually appropriated for the 19th of April is out of line; look up any of your previous town reports, and believe that you will find this annual appropriation to be around $125.00.

I happened to be the chairman of this commission in Arlington last September when an attempt was made to put on a suitable meeting at the Town Hall, and resigned as chairman immediately afterwards, thoroughly disgusted with the support given the occasion by the townspeople. This meeting did not cost the taxpayers a single cent, merely a tremendous amount of work on the part of the Commission, yet I didn't notice your organization giving the event any support, even in the matter of attendance. You wouldn't have anything to do with a meeting that had no expense — you can't see spending any money for series of meetings and events on the 19th — can it be that you do not believe our Constitution is worthy of a fitting celebration on its 150th birthday? Think twice before you answer, for with things going in the direction that they are headed today under present administration, you may never get another chance to celebrate any of its future anniversaries.

There are plenty of ways that this town could save money if the town meeting members so desired, but they pass on big items without question, and pick up small requests such as ours. In case you think I am in the class of a lot of the town meeting members, who get up at meetings and spend our money, yet only pay a poll tax, would advise you that we pay a substantial real estate tax to Arlington each year.

Very truly yours,
CLARENCE F. PEIRCE

This Week's Gardening

By Nils G. Anderson
1st week in February.
Gypsy Moth egg clusters on trees and buildings should be destroyed now.
Make seed-sowing flats for later use.

Feeding birds in winter has a very practical use, because while in your vicinity they will destroy insects in the tree bark.

Forsythia and Pussy Willow branches can be cut now for forcing in water.
Caking surface soils of pot plants should be loosened.

Bulbs in pans brought in from outdoors for forcing should be kept cool at the start.

"Damping Off" is the worst trouble of home gardeners. Use seeds protected or immunized against such fungous diseases and save a lot of trouble replanting.
Foliage house plants should be washed off frequently with a force of water. To combat insects wash with a solution of insecticide, soap and water.
Check up on tools so you will be all set for early Spring work.
Many house plants are injured by being in too large pots. The plant tries to fill the pot with roots and the top suffers.
Pinch off house plant weak growth.

Peterson's Restaurant, corner Mystic and Summer sts., is closed until February 12 for re-decoration.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, February 6.
The Golden Text is: "Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption" (Ephesians 4:30).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High; and call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me" (Psalms 50:14, 15).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To calculate one's life-prospects from a material basis, would infringe upon spiritual law and misguide human hope. Having faith in the divine Principle of health and spiritually understanding God, sustains man under all circumstances; whereas the lower appeal to the general faith in material means (commonly called nature) must yield to the all-might of infinite Spirit" (p. 319).

A MODERN TREND

To some, the modern literature and drama in its most prevalent forms is stark unnecessary filth, while it is described by others as being soul stirring, heart washing truth and magnificence.

Both of these views, modified, are, true. It is true that the writer of today is presenting man in a glaring light, ferreting out his weakness as well as his strength. Some books apply in theory a psycho-analysis to humanity or rather apply most forcefully the commandment "Know thyself." These books are invariably our best sellers. Our authors no longer cater to the foppish fancies of an aristocracy or to the concealed claims of royalty but rather present the tragedies of life in its unhappier forms as well as the joys of life in successful living.

We see the influences of war-torn countries, the suffering of the poor and unemployed and are glad of writers with the courage to present truth as they see it, with unafraid minds.

As we prefer a strong painting by El Greco to the dew drenched sweetness of a Persian painting, so we prefer the strong thoughts in Anthony Adverse, to the cloying intrigues of the Louis the sixteenth period or the escapes of the romantist era.

Nevertheless we fear and are amazed by these writings which can be most readily compared to some surrealist canvasses which possess all the weird distortions usually associated with insanity. This freedom of expression which on the whole is stimulating to the modern adult mind will, if absorbed by immature adolescents, prove an immediate danger as pertinent as the movie gangster influence on children.

A CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM

Whatever may be the outcome of the conference of "small" business men with Secretary Roper at Washington, New England can be proud of the constructive six-point program for business recovery which was adopted by its fifty representatives of small business and industry in Washington on Wednesday.

The six proposals which the New England group indorsed unanimously follow:

Business will prosper if relieved from the fear of further undue Government interference. Political management cannot be substituted for individual initiative.

Easier credit facilities of a reasonable and conservative nature for small business, either through existing agencies or by some other suitable method. Encouragement of investment of private capital in new enterprises.

Repeal of the undistributed profits tax.

The proposed discriminatory tax on legitimate business corporations, stock of which is closely held, should be abandoned.

Reasonable, conservative plan to stimulate and revive the building industry.

Employer and employee alike should be held responsible for the faithful observance of mutual agreements.

Progress along these lines, it would seem, should help considerably to improve business conditions throughout the country. To these can be added the views of A. L. Clark, retail merchant from Dallas, Texas, whose program is, "above all, quit grumbling and go to work, and work like the devil."

Harold Anderson A Good Neighbor

If you would know what a man really is, inquire among his neighbors, business associates, folks who have grown up with him, even his political rivals and his private competitors. If the unanimous finding is that he is inflexibly honest, has never betrayed a trust or done anything which has even the appearance of impropriety, he deserves hearty support from his neighbors and his community. Harold N. Anderson's interest and activity in town affairs are well known in Arlington.

Born in Arlington he has lived for the past fourteen years at 159 Scituate st. where the people of that neighborhood have come to depend on him for help and advice which he has given freely.

Mr. Anderson's experience and qualifications as a C. P. A. have enabled him to help many people with their problems.

His only hobby is the garden where one may find him most any evening in the summer working among his flowers of which he has a great variety and for which he is well known in his neighborhood.

Mr. Anderson is very much interested in Scout work, being one of the pioneer Scout leaders in Arlington, where he was the Scout Master of Troup 1 for four years.

Brackett School P.T.A. To Have Founders' Day

Putney of Lexington, who is the state president of the association, will address the meeting, as will also Mrs. Arthur Field, the state director.

Miss Gladys Porter, teacher of literature in the Arlington High School, will be the speaker on "A Neglected Shelf," and promises much of interest and entertainment.

Cello solos will be offered by Miss Marion Semonlan and Miss Lorna Grant, pupils of Audrey Lester Macdonald, who will accompany them.

The Hospitality Committee, as usual, has planned a social hour during which they will serve refreshments.

The NEWS OBSERVES

One of the most interesting articles in the warrant for the coming town meeting promises to be that of the special committee studying methods of disposal of ashes, rubbish and offal in the town. This committee submitted its second report this week to the finance committee on a plan for the construction of a central reclamation plant at the Town Yard. Precinct meetings will be called before the annual town meeting to make sure that every town meeting member has the complete facts and is thoroughly acquainted with the lengthy report.

A magazine salesman was discovered this week going from house to house selling magazines supposedly under the sponsorship of the Arlington Boys' club. Police Chief Archie F. Bullock, who is also president of the Club, has asked the NEWS to inform the general public that the Club is not sponsoring any drive or campaign.

The Concord Turnpike continues to take its toll of automobile accidents. The most recent was Monday evening when six persons, all out-of-town residents, were injured in a crash near the Almont Country Club.

It is absolutely inexcusable for anyone living in Arlington to shirk his responsibility to his home community by refusing to give to the Arlington Community Chest Appeal on the grounds that he contributed to the Greater Boston Community Campaign. Worthy though that may be, it must be remembered that the Arlington Community Chest depends entirely upon local contributions whereas the Boston drive overlaps the suburbs of Greater Boston thus giving it a wider area in which to operate. If you have not given to the Arlington Community Chest, do it now, late though it may be.

Registrations of new voters got under way this week. If you are qualified to vote and have not registered be sure to do so. The registration dates appear on the first page of the NEWS.

The three billion dollar home-building bill was finally passed by the Senate 42 to 40 this week. President Roosevelt is expected to sign it soon. The result should be considerable activity in a major industry.

Jimmy McHugh's "You're a Sweetheart" was voted No. 1 song of the country in a popular radio program Saturday evening. This hit skyrocketed within five weeks from an unknown song to first place. Its rise in popularity was termed "sensational" by the radio announcer. Jimmy is brother to Arlington's Tom McHugh.

For the past seventeen years Rev. Laurence L. Barber has made a special study each season of some phase of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Next Sunday morning at 10.45 he will give the result of this season's study in a special sermon at the Orthodox Congregational Church. The subject will be "Lincoln As President". The public is invited.

The Arlington Photographic Club will meet in the Robbins Public Library next Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Officers of the new club will be elected at this first meeting. All those interested in photography of any kind are invited.

First Baptist Men Win Over Lexington

The Men's Class of the First Baptist Church of Arlington won the first skitish in their membership contest with the Lexington Baptist Men last Sunday, when nearly 250 men attended to hear Alton B. Miller give an interesting talk on "Friends".

This contest which is to run for eight weeks promises to be one of the most enthusiastic ever conducted at the local church. Red buttons for the regular members and white ones for the new members were distributed and stickers bearing the slogan "Beat Lexington" were placed on members' automobiles at the close of last Sunday's meeting.

Co-chairmen, Carl Everberg and Arthur Littlefield feel confident after the efficient work done by the enthusiastic precinct captains last Sunday that the local class will continue to hold the lead over the Lexington group.

John Easton, past president of the class made a stirring plea for every man present to bring a friend with him next Sunday making it necessary to hold the meeting in the auditorium of the church.

The Pastor of the church, Dr. Grady Feagan will address the class next Sunday. Well liked by the class Dr. Feagan has always attracted a large audience and it is expected that attendance will reach a new high.

At the meeting of the precinct captains Thursday evening, plans were made for the balance of the campaign. It was voted that the membership committee have charge of the regular monthly class social, Tuesday Feb. 8.

MORE ABOUT TOWN EXPENSES

(Editor's Note: In presenting the following study of town expenditures we believe it only fair to state that Arlington's population was 18,646 in 1920; today it is about 40,000. In 1920 the valuation was $24,000,000; today it is about sixty million.)

Continuing our study of Town expenses year by year, Item 4 in the Report of the Finance Committee is the department of the Town accountant. The cost of that Department is as follows:

1920, expended ..... $1939.94
1925, expended ..... 2903.77
1930, expended ..... 5377.82
1935, expended ..... 4773.76
1937, appropriated ..... 5021.00

In explanation of the large jump between 1920 and 1930 let it be understood that in 1920 this department was not constituted as it is now. The employee was then known as an Auditor and it was between 1920 and 1925 that the present change from Auditor to Town Accountant was made with the acceptance of certain State Acts to put the change into effect. Since then this Department has been amplified to become one of the most important in the Town. As will be seen by the above table the expenditures have been more or less uniform from 1930.

To Hold Hearing On Townsend Plan Bill

All members and friends of the Townsend Movement are urged to attend a hearing before the Constitutional Law Committee to approve a Resolution calling upon Congress to enact the Townsend Plan Bill. The General Welfare Act of 1937, H. R. 4199, into Law, to promote recovery in the United States and alleviate the hazards and insecurity of old age. This hearing will be held in Gardner Auditorium, State House, Boston, February 9, at 10:30 A. M.

With a few exceptions, the same officers were reelected, with a large Advisory Board of fifteen members, and a representative to the 5th. Congressional District Advisory Committee, at the regular business meeting of the local club, Tuesday evening, in American Legion Hall.

Reports of officers and Committee Chairmen were given including the Anniversary Dinner held recently, when 102 members and friends attended, and were entertained with a fine program including the Arlington Junior Swing Band. All reports showed progress and growth in the organization.

A large membership Committee of 11 members, with Mrs. W. H. Keith as Chairman, was appointed. The Bulletin Board on which is found the names of Arlington Merchants who are supporting the movement and whom members are advised to patronize, attracted much attention.

For the next Social meeting on February 15, there will be a Peddler's Parade, with plenty of fun, including Peggy the performing dog, and a group of dancers from the Laura Hallisey Studio presenting special features.

The Sew and So group will meet with Mrs. Mower, 106 Hillside Avenue, this afternoon to continue with plans for the coming Social event.

Local B. C. Chapter Meets Next Monday

The Arlington Chapter of the Boston College Alumni Association will meet at 8 o'clock next Monday evening at the K. of C. rooms on Massachusetts avenue.

The feature of the evening's assembly will be an address by one of the foremost historians of the Society of Jesus, Rev. Martin P. Harney, S. J. of Boston College, who will discuss vital phases of current historical crises. There will also be a question period.

The president of the organization, Luke E. McCarthy, has announced that a brief business meeting will precede the speaking program.

DANCING CLASSES
Mid-term classes at the Charron Studio of Dancing will be launched next week. Registration dates for the various classes are announced in this issue of the NEWS. Those intending to attend classes may register any afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock next week. The number of pupils in each class will be limited. ## Two Names Proposed For New River Street Bridge Being Built

Awaiting action to be taken at a conference of the Arlington and Medford Historical Societies, the Metropolitan Affairs committee's hearing on two bills relative to naming the new River street bridge has been postponed.

Two bills have been filed, one, House Bill 957 petitioned by Edward T. Ryan and John L. Pichette, who originally filed the bill calling for a new bridge here, and another, Senate Bill 271, filed by Senator Harris S. Richardson would name the bridge, "Squaw Sachem Bridge." It is understood that the Medford Historical Society would gladly have the bridge named after "Menotomy" since Arlington was first known as "Menotomy."

Heights Young People Visit Malden Church

Last Sunday evening the Young People's Forum of the Park Avenue Congregational Church was guest of the First Congregational Church of Malden where Rev. Clifford Simpson of the Park Avenue Congregational Church spoke on his excavations of the ancient city of Mizpah in Palestine. A lively discussion period followed and the evening closed with a social hour for both groups.

Fire destroyed an automobile owned by Doris S. Maddox of 79 Dow avenue early Monday morning. Engine 3 went to the scene.

It's orders from Dr. Stork!

OLD DOC STORK knows all there is to know about babies. For instance, Rule one, says he, is to see that baby gets the proper nourishment, milk in the right formula. "But," he adds, "be sure that you use WHITING'S IRRADIATED MILK. It helps mightily to provide the new arrival with strong bones and sound teeth." Dr. Stork wants you to call our dairy for daily delivery.

Whiting's IRRADIATED Milk is just what children and expectant mothers need. Many children lack their required amount of Vitamin D. That is the vitamin formed in our bodies on exposure to the sun. It is Vitamin D that is needed to develop and nourish bones and teeth properly. Whiting's IRRADIATED Milk is an economical and convenient source of this precious vitamin. Order it for your family.

Sixty Firemen Receive Training Certificates

Sixty firemen, holding ranks from private to Chief, were presented certificates at graduation exercises of the spring and fall training classes for firemen, in the Highland Fire Station on Tuesday evening. Among those to receive certificates were Judson S. Aiken and Daniel V. Coughlin of Arlington. Others were from Maynard, Medford, Reading, Saugus, Stow, Sudbury, Watertown, Wayland, Acton, Boston, Cambridge, Marblehead and Melrose. The principal speaker at the exercises which opened with a dinner was James G. Reardon, State Commissioner of Education. Chief Daniel B. Tierney was toastmaster. M. Norcross Stratton, assistant director of the division of vocational education in charge of firemen training classes in Massachusetts, was also among the other speakers who included Charles W. Gooding, superintendent of the Boston Protective Department; Chairman of Selectmen Ernest W. Davis and George H. Lowe, Jr.; James J. Golden, executive secretary to the board of selectmen; Chief Seldon R. Allen of the Brookline Fire department; Rep. Morris M. Gott, John I. Lusk and William J. McConnell of the division of vocational education.

Other guests included chiefs of departments represented in the membership of the class, Captain Richard J. Tierney, Captain Charles J. Flynn and Harold O'Leary of the instructional staff and the following special instructors: Paul Mossman, Arlington building inspector; Luke E. McCarthy, of the Arlington school department; John P. Deegan, of the Arlington school department; Edward Williamson, maintenance superintendent of the Boston Protective department; Thomas Carlow of the local fire department; and Lewis Gray of the Simplex Wire & Cable company.

Commissioner Reardon in his talk to the gathering of over one hundred firemen and officials praised the work of Chiefs Tierney, Allen and Mahoney who mapped out the training program under the leadership of Mr. Stratton. He pledged his continued support to the firemen's training program since, he said, he was particularly interested in vocational education. In complimenting Mr. Stratton on his work, Commissioner Reardon said he looked to the latter for leadership in this work to increase the efficiency of firemen's work. Commissioner Reardon predicted that Massachusetts' program, which was given considerable attention at a recent national conference in Washington as a plan which might be followed nationally would continue to be carried out on a wider scale in the future if possible. Commissioner Reardon presented the certificates. Chief Allen, who was called upon to present gifts from the class to Chief Tierney and others, produced one laugh after another with his extremely witty remarks.

Student Nurses Hear Of Hospital Work In Hospitals In Spain

Dr. Seymour J. White of Malden, formerly of New York, discussed the work of the American hospitals in Spain before the student nurses of Symmes Arlington Hospital on Monday evening. He told of the work of the eight American hospitals which are maintained in Spain by the Bureau, and which have been of great assistance to the wounded and the refugees. Just recently a large evacuation ambulance was donated to Spain by Harvard University students, professors and employees, and is now being used with the second American mobile unit.

Wallace To Stay In Race For Public Works Board

Willard A. Wallace has definitely decided to stay in the race for election to the board of public works. He feels, as do his many endorsers, that he has the necessary qualifications to serve on this board. His long record of active service in many town affairs, and positions of responsibility which he has held in many social and fraternal organizations prove to rate him as the man for the job. He wishes to thank his many friends who have so kindly stood by him and encouraged him to stick to the end.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The difference between American and European colleges will be told by Fred Miller in his talk "Life in European Universities" to be presented to the Arlington Junior Women's Club at their next meeting, February 7.

The Blind Circle sponsored by the Juniors met a recent afternoon. Under the direction of Flora Youngken, Chairman, the Juniors and members themselves all cooperated to make a very interesting meeting. The cast of the one-act play to be entered in competition with other junior clubs in the State Drama Contest, presented to the Circle their production, "Mrs. Harper's Bazaar," an amusing farce. Two Blind Circle members contributed to the entertainment a banjo solo and a piano solo, and the entire group joined in the group singing.

Margaret Keefe was appointed Social Chairman of the Arlington Junior Women's Club for the balance of the club year to succeed Janet Blanchard who resigned this position.

At the conclusion of his talk, he presented Commissioner Reardon a badge from the Brookline Fire department. Motion pictures of fire departments in various countries were shown by George Cobb following the speaking program.

"El" Service

the John Harvard Statue. 6. Occasions have been noted where three buses one directly after another were dispatched to Belmont—the last two only partially filled, while a large crowd has to wait for an Arlington bus.

As a result of the foregoing complaints this Association would make the following suggestions to your Honorable Board:

1. That some type of definite schedule be set and adhered to and that a notice of such schedule or any which is therein be published in both Arlington newspapers.
2. That more frequent service be established from Harvard Square to Arlington Heights during the hours from 4.30 p. m. to 7. p. m. to avert the wild scramble that now exists whenever an Arlington bus comes in during that period.
3. That some safety scheme be devised and put into operation at Harvard Square to avert possible injuries at that point because of the congestion there during the rush period.

The Association recognizes some of the difficulties that face the Elevated in operation of the buses around Harvard Square and the fact that the parking and moving of taxi cabs from a point easterly of the mosque impedes the progress of Elevated buses.

We, therefore, offer to the Elevated our co-operation in any way in which this Association may help in remedying that situation. This is to inform you further that it was voted at the January 13th meeting to send a copy of this letter to the Department of Public Utilities.

Very truly yours,
L. Harry Howe,
Secretary.

High School Play Most Successful

By JOSEPH HOAR

With all the pomp and glitter of a Hollywood premiere or a Broadway first night, the Arlington Senior High School Dramatic Club presented its annual production at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall Saturday evening.

From the dust-covered works of J. M. Barrie, Directors Mrs. Helen F. Matthews and Miss Claire H. Johnston, assisted by Miss Gladys Porter, selected the "Admirable Crichton" and after a five months rehearsal with a few carpenters, a cast, and some capital, emerged with a production of polish and quality.

Act One reveals a bored-to-the-tears English family, compelled by custom to entertain their servants once every month, gathered in their drawing room. It is announced to those present that they are to leave immediately with their father on his yacht for distant parts of the earth. With them on this pleasure trip will go their faithful butler, Crichton, plus a few servants.

In Act Two the family is seen shipwrecked on a desert island where, amidst thrills, love affairs, and antic occurrences, Crichton reverts into a resourceful, invincible leader on whom the entire congregation must lean and obey.

The Third Act disclosed, among many things, the physical changes in the family after three years of being marooned, the announcement of rescue, and the effect of this on Crichton.

In the last act the English family is back home. Each member, however, has changed. It is a more affectionate, healthier, and happier household now. His carefree days over, Crichton continues to "bottle" and the various love affairs are ironed out before the final curtain.

In any school affair of this type the cast naturally is considered above the play. In this case the players are not unworthy of such an honor due to the brilliant handling of each and every part.

Ernest Benshimol, Jr., injected into the role of Crichton a sparkling originality, replete with flawless behavior and reserved courtesy. Not once does he give the impression of Ernest Benshimol; from beginning to end he is, always, Crichton.

As the Honorable Ernest Woolley, Richard Ward left nothing for the imagination. Aided by a magnificent voice, he passed his characterization of the young, pampered, weakling with strokes of deft, clarity, and humor.

Miss Marion Fillmore's Lady Agatha Lasenby turned out to be a crackpot portrayal. Her pronunciation of the butler's name as "Cry-ton" made her speech arresting and her presence on stage more closely observed. She looked beautiful as she acted beautifully.

Paired with her cool, poised, authentic Marguerite Bond was a society debutante to her finger-tips.

Sophomore Jean Mark displayed her unquestioned talent as an actress by making Lady Mary a pleasing reality. Such talent in such youth is indeed remarkable. Miss Fillmore and Miss Mark deserve singular felicitations in that both of these young ladies were given their parts to learn in eleven days.

Irving Brown as the portly Earl of Loam was definitely a stand-out performance. Mr. Brown was very funny when mistaken for a "tiger-cat." This assignment could easily have been hammed; Brown acted it to the hilt.

William Miller's reserved clergyman who can do the "big apple" and Herbert Greeley's crackpot Lord who wielded a fancy monocle were two personal triumphs as well as laugh-provokers.

Barbara Bouzas struck a genuine note as the aged housekeeper

Arlington High Hockey Team Suffers 9-1 Blow

Playing on the Boston Arena ice brought anything but good luck to the Arlington High School hockey team as it suffered a 9 to 1 defeat administered by Cambridge Latin High last Saturday afternoon.

Mort Buckley, fast Cambridge captain went on a scoring spree and had a part in his team's nine goals. Six of the points, he scored unassisted; to the other three, he contributed with assists. Arlington's only score came when Larry Babine banged a backhand into the nets.

Playing for Arlington were Carey, G. Blanchard, rd. Bais, ld; Babine, C. Meaney, rw; Sanders, lw; Carens, Lyons, Barnstead, Hickey, Rowe, Spinner and Byrne, spares.

The Trefol League met a recent evening at the home of Mrs. Clarence Conroy of Follen Road, Lexington, for an evening of fun, with Mrs. Chester Millett and Mrs. Chester Gogg as assistant hostesses. The evening was spent in games and contests, ending up with the serving of sandwiches and coffee and an attractive birthday cake in honor of the League's approaching birthday.

After the Final High School Principal Herman Gammons congratulating the leading players one and all. Irene Allison, injured actress being presented with beautiful flowers by the cast. Each and every female player being given a bouquet. Directors Matthews and Johnston were faces bursting into smiles at the thundering ovation of the grand finale. Gordon McLeod, brilliant actor of 1937's

Forest Cafe To Present

Another attraction tomorrow evening will be Eva Langley, for many years piano accompanist at the Metropolitan theatre.

Here's Good News For Winter Sports Fans

Two announcements made this week will be of considerable interest to Arlington winter sports followers. One is that of the New England Council listing winter carnivals and other events for February, March and even April in New Hampshire and Vermont, principally. The other announcement is that of the Arlington Hardware company, 665 Massachusetts avenue of a bona fide 20 per cent reduction in price of all skates, skis, ski poles, sleds and other winter sports needs. This progressive store has an unusually good selection of outdoor sports equipment and its 20 per cent price cut on nationally known products is certainly worthwhile in view of the fact that there are still many more carnivals to come, to say nothing of the possibility of more snow right here in Arlington this winter.

Mrs. Stebbins, missionary from French Indo China, was the guest speaker at the Monthly Missionary Meeting of the Arlington Heights Baptist Church, a recent afternoon.

SQUARE AND REPERTORY

The Square Theatre in Medford and Repertory Theatre at Huntington and Massachusetts avenues, Boston, present a selection of the season's outstanding films, chosen for their proven entertainment quality.

Attractions at these twin theatres for the coming week are: Sunday thru Tuesday, Charlie Chaplin with Pauline Goddard in "Modern Times"; also Victor Moore and Helen Broderick in "We're On the Jury."

Wednesday and Thursday Cary Grant and Mary Brian in "Romance and Riches" co-featured with Elizabeth Allen and Arthur Walbrook in "The Soldier and the Lady."
Friday and Saturday, Walter Huston in his portrayal of "Abraham Lincoln." On the same bill are Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in "Roberta" with Irene Dunne and Randolph Scott.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

"Portia on Trial," the latest photoplay to be adapted from a Faith Baldwin story, opens Sunday at the University Theatre. Frieda Inescourt plays the title role of the brilliant woman criminal lawyer forced to defend the murderer of her son's father. Portia is a brilliant and successful woman criminal lawyer, admired and feared by her adversaries. An unfortunate love affair in her early girlhood has provided the driving force to urge her to secure justice for downtrodden womanhood—justice at any cost.

Patterned in spirit after the radio broadcast whose name it bears, "Manhattan Merry-Go-Round," the associate feature presents a series of tuneful new songs, interpreted by such songbirds as Phil Regan, and Tamara Geva, or by such orchestra wizards as Cab Calloway and Ted Lewis.
"Torchy Blane, the Adventurous Blonde," the companion feature, is the third in the series of "Torchy Blane" newspaper-mystery-comedy dramas, featuring Glenda Farrell and Barton MacLane. Glenda plays a girl reporter, Barton a rather ponderous detective-lieutenant.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE

"The Buccaneer," the spectacular new Cecil B. DeMille production starring Frederic March, that scored a smashing triumph at a local preview a fortnight ago, is scheduled to begin its regular first run Boston engagement today, on the screen of the Metropolitan, where it will share program honors with "Pirates On Parade," an original stage presentation, featuring the Condos Brothers, popular stage and screen dance stars, and the Rigoletto Brothers, famous European novelty offering.

Boasting one of the greatest casts ever assembled for a motion picture, "The Buccaneer" is based on a crucial but little known chapter of American history.

STATE AND ORPHEUM

Edward G. Robinson in "The Last Gangster," Metro-Goldwyn Mayer's gripping drama will open today at both Loew's State and Orpheum Theatres. The companion feature will be "You're Only Young Once," another M-G-M production.

"The Last Gangster" is the story of a domineering, ruthless, underworld czar.

"You're Only Young Once" is a hilarious family comedy featuring Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker, Frank Craven and Fay Holden.

RKO BOSTON THEATRE

"International Settlement," thundering Twentieth Century-Fox drama with Dolores Del Rio and George Sanders, stars of "Lancer Spy," in the leading role tops the new double feature program coming to the RKO Boston Theatre today. Preston Foster and Whitney Bourne in "Double Danger," RKO Radio's new mystery offering, will be the companion feature.

A new type of mystery thriller, without any indiscriminate killings, but with a cleverly wrought plot that provides novel entertainment, is offered in "Double Danger," which deals with a police commissioner's efforts to trap an ingenious master-crackman.

Veterans' Organization
To Sponsor Showing Of
Movie, 'Abraham Lincoln'

A large audience is expected to attend the concert and the ten reel moving picture "Abraham Lincoln" in the Tremont Temple Building, Boston, on February 4 and 8 at 8 p. m. under the auspices of the Massachusetts Department of Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War. The committee is working hard to make this the most outstanding occasion which some of the remaining Massachusetts veterans of the Civil War will attend in honor of the deep memory of their great leader, Abraham Lincoln, one of the greatest characters of American history.

Among the stars in the picture are Walter Huston, Una Merkel, and Ian Keith—not the six reel picture previously shown, but a special ten reel talking picture produced by D. W. Griffith. This wonder picture portrays the most romantic figure in the world. It is Lincoln lives as boy, youth and man—his life an epic of America. This is a concert and moving picture that those attending will never forget. Tickets are now on sale at the box office in the Tremont Temple Building, Boston.

Christian Endeavors Observe Launching Of Movement 57 Years Ago

Fifty-seven years ago this week, in the Williston Congregational Church in Portland, Maine, the Christian Endeavor movement which has spread all over the world was started. Christian Unions and Societies everywhere are making this week one of outstanding importance in celebration of the anniversary. The Sagamore C. E. devoted its February meeting, Tuesday night at the First Baptist Church to the observance. As an attraction they had "Uncle Elmer," of radio fame, and his "Song Circle."

The Sagamore Union is made up of the Christian Endeavor Societies in the First Baptist Church in Arlington, the Arlington Heights Baptist Church, the Burlington Congregational Church, the Carlisle Congregational Church, the Fulton Heights Community Baptist Church in Medford, the West Medford Baptist Church, the Wilmington Community Church, the First Baptist Church in Winchester, and from Woburn, the First Baptist Church, the Montvale Congregational Church, the North Congregational Church, and the Pinchurst Community Church.

The meeting Tuesday night started with a supper at 6:30. Fifty young people sat down to tables which were decorated with Valentine Birthday Decorations. After supper the usual conferences were held. There are four courses: "The Young People's Society in Principle and Practice," led by Lawrence Tee; "The Young People's Society Meeting," led by Gordon MacPherson; "Christian Youth in Service," led by Richard Warren; and "Social Issues for Christian Youth," led by Rev. Frederick E. Gardner.

At eight o'clock there was an audience of 267 waiting for "Uncle Elmer." The service was presented like his usual radio hour with the addition of a short Worship and Business session conducted by the officers of Sagamore Union.

Weiner Invaluable As Basketball Coach

By James J. Corbett

Thirteen years ago, Frederick Connerton Weiner, a lad from the Heights witnessed his first basketball game as the guest of his schoolmate, William "Lefty" Lowder, who was then captaining an amateur club and now coaching the local varsity.

Fred liked the game so much that from there on, he studied the rules, plays, and scientific build-up of the game. He coached the Lexington Minute Men who garnered 19 straight victories without a defeat. Mr. Weiner's name was in the spotlight again when a Boston reporter said: "He has the ability to coach most any high school quintet, not saying what he could do with a prep or college squad."

All teams in Arlington have recognized this lone wizard, as a great fellow and above all things, a fine sport.

Mr. Weiner is now offering his services to the Arlington Royals, one of the finest semi-pro quintets in New England. With a brilliant sound and the coaching of Fred Weiner, this team will triumph in the majority of its scheduled games. Arlington, needless to say, is proud of this favorite son of the basketball courts.
